PROCEEDINGS

THE COURT: Good afternoon. This is Judge Chan's 12:00 list for January 8th. The only matter is W.R. Grace & Co. It's a telephonic conference regarding Mr. Smolker's request for extension. Could counsel and parties make their appearances, please?

MR. O'NEILL: Yes, Your Honor, sorry. This is

James O'Neill for W.R. Grace. I'm from the firm of Pachulski, Stang Ziehl & Jones. And joining me on the telephone today is my co-counsel in this matter, Roger

Higgins, and also we have our client, Viktoriya Shpigelman from Grace.

MR. SMOLKER: Hi. I'm Gary Smolker, the claimant.

THE COURT: Mr. Smolker, you filed your response to the summary judgment motion. I see that there are -- it looked like there were two filings: one was on January 4th, 2021, it's 767 pages; that was the declaration and opposition to the summary judgment motion. There's also an entry on the same day, January 4th, it's 19 pages, that contains some exhibits, additional exhibits to your opposition.

I see that, you know, technically, these filings were after the December 30th date that we had discussed the last time when we were together. And I understand from -- I guess I've seen, you know, that you did try to serve that

Page 5 and file that in a timely fashion, and I'm not sure if it 1 2 was just the length of the pages or whatever, but, you know, it didn't get filed until the 4th. 3 MR. SMOLKER: Actually, I have a statement from 5 Federal Express saying it was served with the Court on 6 December 30th at 11:18. Actually, what happened is when 7 it's given to the Court, it's not filed; they take time to 8 file it. I actually have somebody from Federal Express 9 saying it was served with the Court on December 30th. I've had trouble sending and receiving 10 THE COURT: 11 packages during the holiday season, and I hear it was 12 unprecedented, so I'll take your word on it unless anyone 13 else wanted to chime in, but that, you know, you did try to 14 do that on time. 15 But the reason why we're here today is because 16 you're requesting additional time? I was just wanting to 17 understand what it is that you wanted to file and why you 18 think you need more time for this. 19 Thank you very much. Could you MR. SMOLKER: 20 repeat what you said you received because our connection is 21 not entirely clear. Apparently, (sound glitch) there's a 22 delay and there's an echo (sound glitch). I heard you say 23 you have 762 pages. That's all I heard. 24 ESR CLERK: Excuse me, Judge. Before --

Would it be for Mr. Smolker to hang up

THE COURT:

1	and call back in?
2	ESR CLERK: Do we have it's on speakerphone.
3	MR. SMOLKER: I'm not on speakerphone.
4	ESR CLERK: Okay.
5	MR. SMOLKER: I can call right back. I was on
6	speakerphone to begin with and then I picked up direct.
7	Should I hang up and I'll call (sound glitch) without
8	speakerphone?
9	ESR CLERK: No. Usually, you get an echo when you
10	have it on speakerphone; that's why I asked the question.
11	MR. SMOLKER: Yeah. Well, I'm off the
12	speakerphone, so why don't I just hang up and not go on
13	speakerphone. Would that be okay?
14	ESR CLERK: Judge?
15	CLERK: Is that okay, Judge?
16	THE COURT: Wait, I'm echoing too. It's the line.
17	ESR CLERK: I think everybody's echoing.
18	THE COURT: Mr. Smolker, why don't you call back
19	in, okay?
20	MR. SMOLKER: I'll call right back. Thank you.
21	CLERK: Judge, I'm also echoing, so I'm going to
22	go out and come back in too.
23	MR. O'NEILL: This is James O'Neill. I'm still
24	here. Do you hear (crosstalk).
25	ESP CIERK: You I soo woulto still hore Ms

1	Shpigelman is still here. I'm not echoing any longer, so
2	I'm not sure.
3	MR. O'NEILL: Okay.
4	ESR CLERK: I am echoing a little bit.
5	MS. SHPIGELMAN: This is Viktoriya Shpigelman. If
6	I need to dial back in, just let me know, but I'm not
7	hearing any echoes right now.
8	ESR CLERK: And I won't be speaking. All right,
9	Mr. Higgins is back in.
10	MR. SMOLKER: Hi. Gary Smolker back again.
11	ESR CLERK: Mr. Smolker, you're better.
12	MR. SMOLKER: I heard you clearly without an echo.
13	ESR CLERK: We're still waiting for the judge to 14	dial back in, and the gentleman in the courtroom got
15	deleted, dialed back in.
16	MR. SMOLKER: There's just a slight echo. It's
17	much less.
18	ESR CLERK: Yeah. Well, I don't hear you echoing
19	at all and I won't be speaking, so we don't have to worry
20	about my echoing. Guest with the last four digits 4869.
21	CLERK: Yeah, that's me. I came in the long way.
22	And the Judge can't get back on.
23	MR. SMOLKER: Anyway, who is the man I'm speaking
24	to?
25	ESR CLERK: Mr. Smolker, this is Judge Chan's ESR

1	clerk.
2	MR. SMOLKER: Hi. I don't know what ESR clerk
3	means, but welcome to the conversation.
4	ESR CLERK: I'm always there. I host the call.
5	CLERK: Yeah. She's hit the exit, so it won't
6	work. I told her to use the hyphen.
7	MR. SMOLKER: So are you guys having a pandemic
8	where you are?
9	CLERK: Yeah.
10	MR. SMOLKER: We're just totally wiped out here in
11	Los Angeles.
12	ESR CLERK: Now what happened? Joan dropped off
13	the call. All right, I'm not sure why we're having issues
14	with this call. I'm going to stop the recording.
15	(Break)
16	CLERK: So does anyone else have a problem using
17	the 302768# access code?
18	MR. SMOLKER: Gary Smolker does. I still have an
19	echo.
20	(Crosstalk)
21	CLERK: You were still able to use the code.
22	MR. SMOLKER: Yes.
23	THE COURT: Get through this hearing as quickly as
24	possible given that we've having these technical issues.
25	So. Mr. Smolker. I was saying before that I saw your two filings that were logged on January 4th. You had a 700-plus page filing, and then you had an additional filing that had some more exhibits to it, so I've seen all of that. I wanted to know what else you may need to file and why you need more time.

MR. SMOLKER: Thank you very much, and I have something else to bring up if I may. But anyway, to answer your question directly, I made a miscalculation on how much time it would take me to gather all the exhibits I wanted to refer to and to prepare my papers. And it turned out to be impractical and impossible to get everything together and to send it to the Court on December 29th, which I did by Federal Express, priority overnight mail, and Federal Express reported back to me that it was filed with the Court on December 30th at 11:18.

And I spoke to Mr. Higgins -- I got email communications from Mr. Higgins, who I sent by Federal Express overnight also, that he received the entire package on December 30th. And I assume Mr. O'Neill received it also because my communications were to both of them, and although it was from Mr. Higgins, it was with a copy to Mr. O'Neill.

So I don't know why Higgins and O'Neill got what they were supposed to get on December 30th, and I have something from Federal Express that said it was delivered, and I don't see how it's possible that the Court didn't get it on December 30th also.

Mr. Higgins explained to me that it took a time for the Court to upload what it had received and that that's why there was a delay in filling it on the docket.

THE COURT: Mr. Smolker, I would like to move on because there are technical issues, to the substance of the hearing today. I would like you to address what additional documents you think you need to file in this case and why you needed the additional time.

So I hear you said that you had a lot of exhibits that you didn't realize you were going to have to collect, but what else did you want to file in this matter in opposition to summary judgment; what other documents?

MR. SMOLKER: Hello, this is Gary Smolker speaking. I have to prepare my memorandum in place with authorities. My statement of facts with reference to where it's found in the record, my objection to Grace's statement of facts, which I say are not supported by the evidence, and my description of what really happened because Grace's presentation gives a misleading picture of what has gone on and so forth.

And when I asked Grace for an extension, that generated, according to my scale, 1.2 pounds of correspondence. And I told Grace if they didn't want to give me an extension, I would file a motion for permission

1	to file additional documents in opposition to the summary
2	judgment motion. And I proposed that I have a hearing on
3	that at 1:30 p.m. or 2:00 p.m. Eastern time because there's
4	already a hearing scheduled for that to begin on the summary
5	judgment motion, and that I will file my motion requesting
6	more time on Friday, February 15th before 4:00 p.m., and I
7	will outline all the reasons why I need more time and I will
8	also attach what I want permission to file. And that will
9	give
LO	THE COURT: If you'll recall at the last hearing
L1	we had in this matter
L2	MR. SMOLKER: Your Honor, I'm sorry. I was muted
L3	and I couldn't hear whatever you said.
L 4	THE COURT: Can you hear me?
L5	ESR CLERK: Judge, you're in and out.
L 6	THE COURT: Joan, what if I called you, could we
L 7	join in on the same line, because I need Mr. Smolker to hear
L 8	me.
L 9	ESR CLERK: Judge, let me see if I can up your
20	volume and see if that works. Okay, try speaking now.
21	THE COURT: Can you hear me now? This is Judge
22	Chan.
23	MR. SMOLKER: I can, thank you.
24	THE COURT: Sir, you may recall at the last
25	hearing that we had in this matter, I told you in no uncertain terms that I needed you to file all of your documents in opposition to summary judgment no later than December 30th. And I told you that I needed you to do that by that date because the summary judgment motion had been filed months before, and I needed to balance your need for additional time with the plaintiff's right to have a hearing and get a disposition on their summary judgment motion.

And I note for the record that it's now been four plus months since you've been in possession of the summary judgment motion, and at this point, I can no longer give you additional time. And the fact that you can't even outline for me today exactly what you're going to be saying, you know, what you need to file in terms of your supplemental briefing and the reasons for it, the fact that you can't tell me that today and are proposing to file a motion in February is, unfortunately, unacceptable to me.

I needed you to file all of your documents by then and, frankly, I still don't understand why you would need to file anything else since you've already filed 700-plus pages of documents in this proceeding.

MR. SMOLKER: Well, first -- excuse me for talking. I'll wait until you're done. Thank you.

THE COURT: Go ahead.

MR. SMOLKER: I can't hear you.

THE COURT: Mr. Smolker, and tell me your response

1 to that.

MR. SMOLKER: First of all, the time that I have had this was because Grace didn't give me enough time to respond and it took time for them to have a hearing before you because they couldn't agree with me on how much time I would have before you gave me more time to respond.

So it's not a question of how long, at least I don't think it's a question of how long I've had their paper. I think it's a question of how they have done things so that I didn't have enough time, and that they have not told the whole story. And I thought I just told you what I would respond, so I'll repeat it and I'll give more detail.

I would file a memorandum of points and authorities, which would walk you through the law. And by the way, in the documents that I sent you are copies of the California code sections -- the California Code of Civil Procedure, the California Food & Agricultural Code, the California Rules of Court -- in my points and authorities and my declaration.

I would walk you through all those code sections and show you how the motion to dismiss for five years should never have been granted. It's clear as a matter of law that it's a completely wrong decision because I could show you.

I would also -- and I did show you, my request for rehearing of the Court of Appeal, and they refused to address clear errors. For example, the Court of Appeal in its decision said that I complained that I didn't get the notice I was supposed to get for their summary judgment motion. And I pointed out that I had given the Superior Court a document which was their proof of service, which showed that something they were supposed to send me by fax, which was -- and this is just memory -- 235 pages, maybe it was even more -- they only sent me 15 pages, so I didn't even have the pages I was supposed to have by the time I was supposed to get it, and then the trial judge ignored that.

And the Court of Appeal opinion said that I had complained about that and there was nothing in the record to support it. But I had given the Court of Appeal the documents to support it, which was the proof of service, of Grace of what it filed, and the Court of Appeal decision said that they -- that means Grace -- had made a motion to dismiss based on three years; whereas, you have the motion, and you have what Grace said in its thing, the motion that is made was five years.

And there are different code sections that have to do with tolling and how orders work, and the bottom line was that the five years never happened. And there's a Rule of Court that says that when there is a stay order, that the stay order is in effect until it is taken out of effect, and the Superior Court Judge had put a stay order on the Grace proceeding -- this is by memory -- on February 2nd, 2001. I attached a copy of that stay order in those 700-plus pages, and I attached the California Rule of Court that says that stay order stays in effect until the Judge undoes it, and the Judge never undid it.

And this was made very clear to the Court of Appeal, which you'll see both in -- well, in my request for rehearing. And the Court of Appeal said that equitably it was my duty to tell the Court that the Bankruptcy Court had released their stay; whereas, it wasn't my duty, and I'll show you that in the law, but Grace said, and Grace had told the Superior Court that the Bankruptcy Court had released the stay.

So it was just a façade to say that the Superior Court didn't have notice or that I was supposed to give it notice, and the opinion made up this equitable doctrine that that occur in the law that it's my duty to tell the Superior Court that the Bankruptcy Court stay has been released, and therefore, I should be punished and it should be dismissed.

And I wrote in my rehearing motion that this had not been briefed by any party, and there's a rule or a code in California, which should be in all those documents I gave you and it is in my petition for rehearing, which is in those 700 documents, that says if the Court brings up something that hasn't been briefed by any of the parties, then the Court has to have a hearing on that. And in my petition for review, I pointed out that no party had brought that up, that this is just something the Court brought up on its own, and I wanted to have a hearing and a briefing on it, which the Court didn't give me.

Also, of importance and overshadowing this is two things. Grace does mention that I did bring a motion for sanctions of over a million dollars against Grace's attorneys, which I presented in those 700 documents, and Grace did not object. Well, I have, under my declaration, the fraudulent things Grace and its attorneys did both in the Bankruptcy Court and in the Superior Court to obtain what they obtained. And since Grace didn't object, they had, under California law and I have federal law here, which I'm not that familiar with, I'm still looking at -- that's an admission. If you don't deny an accusation, that's an admission.

So as far as I'm concerned, Grace and its attorneys have already agreed that they defrauded the Bankruptcy Court and that's before we even get to this motion. And I have a different motion already set for sanctions -- I think it's under 11(b) -- for how they've misled this Court in all the papers that they're filing.

But, to me, besides the integrity of the court system, the public health is of paramount importance, and there is overwhelming evidence that this Syloid 244 is a public health menace and it should be allowed to be used the way Grace used it. And there's a Superior Court summary judgment motion that Grace brought trying to get summary judgment and the trial judge said, how could I possibly give you summary judgment when your own shipping document says do not let unprotected exposure to this happen, it's dangerous.

And so, in addition to Grace admitting that you shouldn't have unprotected exposure to this stuff and the way it's applied by termite control guarantees unprotected exposure, that should be known to the public either as that was something that was claimed in the lawsuit or that is something we never had a trial on.

And if you read the Superior Court decision, it does not mention Syloid 244 or the fact that it's dangerous or the fact that three different government agencies issued violation notices on the basis that it was illegal to use. It's not in the Superior Court decision. It's not in the Court of Appeal decision that this has been determined by government officials in California in charge of pesticide regulation to be dangerous and it was illegal to sell this, and they were -- they meaning termite control, the applicator -- was cited for it, and it's not in Grace's motion for summary judgment.

Whatever you decide in Grace's motion for summary

Page 18 1 judgment, there should be a statement that claimant claims 2 that this is a dangerous substance that's ultra-high 3 hazardous to use, and that there's not been a decision on 4 the merits of this. This entire thing has been a rush job 5 when there's an incredibly complex story of how much effort 6 has been gone through to squash this information. 7 And so, I want you to clearly understand that 8 Grace has hidden from you and the public that they illegally 9 manufactured, they illegally sold a toxic substance, and 10 that injuries are claims who have occurred as a result of 11 that. 12 In terms of Grace's right to due process and, you 13 know, having things resolved, I would just note for you an 14 order that you've --15 THE COURT: Can you hear me? 16 ESR CLERK: I can hear you, Judge. 17 THE COURT: Okay. 18 ESR CLERK: I can hear you now. 19 THE COURT: Mr. Smolker, it sounds to me like from 20 what you're saying that you have several grievances, not 21 just with W.R. Grace, but, you know, with various courts 22 that you've had some interaction in. To the extent that you 23 are dissatisfied with any of the actions taken by other 24 courts, unfortunately, there's nothing I can do about that.

And I would also point out that the summary judgment motion was filed on August 3rd, 2020. And while I know there was some delay in you receiving that motion, you did ultimately receive it. I entered an order on October 2nd, 2020 setting forth a scheduling deadline, and you had agreed at that time to file your response by December 16th. You made a request after that time on the eve of that filing deadline to further extend your time to respond to summary judgment, which I granted with the clear condition that there would be no more time given to you, that at some point, we just had to pick a deadline.

And you've now had the motion for over five months, which is plenty of time to get all of your materials together and your memorandum, and I warned you at the last hearing in December that December 30th was the last day that I felt comfortable extending your response deadline to.

So, unfortunately, given my warning, given the two hearings we've had on this matter where I clearly told you that in balancing the due process rights of you against W.R. Grace, that, you know, I gave you, you know, generous extensions of time to, you know, put together your responses. And, unfortunately, you have not taken advantage of that time and you have not -- those were the only -- those were the deadlines that I felt comfortable giving you.

And at this point, there is nothing more that I can do for you. You will have to just rest on the pleadings

Page 20 1 that filed in front of this Court. I don't know what else 2 to tell you, sir, but I clearly explained to you at both of the hearings and certainly at the last hearing, that you 3 were not going to get anymore extensions of time. 4 So, unfortunately, the Court is denying your 5 6 request for additional time, and I would direct W.R. Grace 7 to file whatever response it believes is appropriate to Mr. 8 Smolker's 700-page plus response and the other exhibits he's 9 filed, and we are going to have a hearing on this in 10 February. I believe that the hearing is currently scheduled 11 for -- isn't it February 1st, Joan, at 12:00 p.m.; is that 12 correct? 13 Yes, it is. CLERK: 14 THE COURT: Okay. So I expect all parties to call 15 in at that time, and I will have the hearing. Jamie, did 16 you need additional time to file your response to Mr. 17 Smolker's response? MR. O'NEILL: So, hi, this is, yes, James O'Neill. 18 19 So my colleague and co-counsel, Mr. Higgins, is on the 20 phone, and he is going to be doing the primary drafting for 21 this matter, so I just might ask him whether our schedule is 22 okay. 23 THE COURT: Okay. 24 MR. O'NEILL: I believe that we were supposed to 25 file our response by the -- our reply by the 20th of this

Page 21 1 month. 2 THE COURT: Okay. 3 MR. O'NEILL: So I'll just ask Mr. Higgins to give 4 us an update. MR. HIGGINS: Your Honor, Roger Higgins for W.R. 5 6 Insofar as the reply goes, we should be able to get 7 something on file by the 20th of January. 8 I am sorry to bring up at this juncture, there is 9 another complicating factor. Mr. Smolker, on December 28th 10 of last month, December 28th, 2020, served a request for 11 production of documents on Grace with a return date of 12 January 27th, and his various correspondences with us 13 indicated that he intended to use these documents at the 14 February 1st hearing. 15 We plan to file an appropriate pleading prior to 16 the January 27th return date objecting to this request for 17 production because it violates Rule 56(d). And I wanted to 18 alert you to this issue and also to say unless you direct 19 otherwise, Grace was not intending to conduct a meet and confer under Local Rule 7026-1A with Mr. Smolker because 20 21 this is sort of a zero-one kind of issue where there's no 22 room for compromise; either Grace is required to produce 23 documents or it's not, and we're not even getting to the scope of what the production should be. 24 25 Okay. So will you be filing something THE COURT:

Page 22 1 before me that I'll be ruling on in connection with your 2 opposition to producing that discovery? 3 MR. HIGGINS: Your Honor, our thought was to file 4 something before the 27th of January to be heard in due 5 course. 6 THE COURT: Okay. 7 MR. HIGGINS: But I think that that wouldn't be 8 heard on the 1st, and that we could go ahead on the 1st with the reply -- or with the summary judgment, Your Honor. 9 10 THE COURT: With the hearing, yup, right. 11 MR. HIGGINS: Yes. THE COURT: Well, that's fine with me, sir. 12 13 MR. HIGGINS: All right. Thank you, Your Honor. 14 THE COURT: You're welcome. Okay, so I think at 15 this point, we will next meet on February 1st during the 16 telephonic hearing and you'll be able to comply, W.R. Grace, 17 with your reply that will be due before then, and I will 18 talk to all of you then. Anything else from anybody? 19 MR. O'NEILL: No, thank you, Your Honor. 20 THE COURT: Okay, great. Thanks everybody. 21 a good one. 22 MR. SMOLKER: Your Honor, I would like to be 23 heard. 24 THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Smolker. 25 MR. SMOLKER: According to my reading of Rule

1	6(b)(1)(B) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Rule
2	56(d), I have the right to file a motion for permission to
3	file more papers. There's a thing in the code section that
4	allows one to make a motion and to express why they didn't
5	do it before. It's Rule (6)(b)(1)(B) of the Federal Rules
6	of Civil Procedure and Rule 56(d) of the Federal Rules of
7	Civil Procedure, and I would like to file such a motion by
8	January 15th and, if possible, to have it heard on February
9	1st either before the summary judgment motion or at the same
10	time as the summary judgment motion.
11	THE COURT: Well, Mr. Smolker, I certainly can't
12	give you any legal advice, but you should feel free to file
13	whatever you want to file, and I will respond accordingly.
14	Okay?
15	MR. SMOLKER: But I would like to reserve the time
16	of February 1st. I understand I have to reserve the time of
17	the hearing.
18	THE COURT: Yes. Well, at this point without
19	seeing your motion, I cannot give you a hearing date. So I
20	would just ask that you file your motion and follow the
21	rules, and I will respond appropriately. Okay?
22	MR. SMOLKER: Okay, thank you.
23	THE COURT: All right, thanks everybody.
